

THERE'S A NEW GUY IN TOWN

For Immediate Release on June 5, 2008

There's a New Guy in Town
Have you met him yet?

MAN ON THE STREET: Hey, you! Gold Dude! Yeah, you! What's your angle?

GOLD DUDE: Angle? No angle – I'm just here to tell everyone in the North Central Texas area that they can have FINANCIAL POWER FOR A NEW FUTURE.

MAN ON THE STREET: I like that idea – tell me more.

GOLD DUDE: Your financial future is driven by how you use your money today and what you do with it. Ever heard the statement – “can't see the forest for the trees”?

MAN ON THE STREET: Sure. But what does that have to do with anything?

GOLD DUDE: Well, it can be the same with your money. Sometimes it's hard to see past today's bills, wants and just daily life to preparing for your future. Too often we let our money filter away and then one day wish we had made a better plan. The folks at CCCS of North Central Texas can help you do that. They'll help you create your very own action plan to build

FINANCIAL POWER FOR A NEW FUTURE.

Call them – today. I'll be seeing you around – look for me.

Consumer Credit Counseling Service of North Central Texas, Inc. is a full service non-profit organization. Financial counseling consists of a detailed assessment of your situation including your income, daily expenses and current debt. Sometimes, people just need a new action plan to get back on track. In some cases, Debt Management Programs (DMP) may be necessary for those who cannot meet their monthly expenses. Other services include pre-purchase, foreclosure prevention and reverse mortgage. For those in need of Bankruptcy counseling and education, now required by law, CCCS of North Central Texas, Inc. is approved to provide these services as well. In addition, educational seminars and workshops which are free to the public help you reach your financial goals. As a member of the National Foundation for Credit Counseling, CCCS of North Central

Texas

, Inc. is nationally accredited and all counselors are certified. You can trust CCCS when it comes to PROVIDING FINANCIAL POWER FOR A NEW FUTURE.

For more information call 972-542-0257 or 800-856-0257 or visit us on the web at www.cccsnct.org

CCCS is a member of the nation's largest and longest-serving national nonprofit credit counseling organization, the National Foundation for Credit Counseling, Inc. (NFCC). Our collective mission is to provide services to consumers to help them achieve financial wellness through financial management counseling, financial education and when appropriate debt reduction services through debt management plans. Be informed; Knowing the Difference Can Make All the Difference is assurance provided through CCCS and the NFCC. As a condition of membership, CCCS is required to maintain high quality services through standards set by The Council on Accreditation and the NFCC, along with Credit Counseling Consumer Protection Standards. To read more about these guidelines visit www.nfcc.org or you may call 1-866-600-CCCS (2227) for pre-recorded information. For direct access to CCCS locally, call 1-800-856-0257 for a confidential appointment with a certified credit counselor or to learn more about educational seminars and workshops provided by CCCS. Visit us online at www.cccsnct.org.